

As a concerned resident of Farmington, I support delegation of authority to the individual state to realign area codes outside of the area code relief process. States are in a better position to determine local needs.